

relationship goals

With 80% living together before marriage and a 50% divorce rate, it is so important to preach on marriage yet when pastors do, singles often feel alienated.

Relationship Goals resolves this tension.

Q+A

What's is the Relationship Goals series?

Relationship Goals is a 6-week sermon series on healthy relationships with complementary curricula for K-12th grades and two video-based discussion group tracks: one for singles about dating and another for couples in marriage.

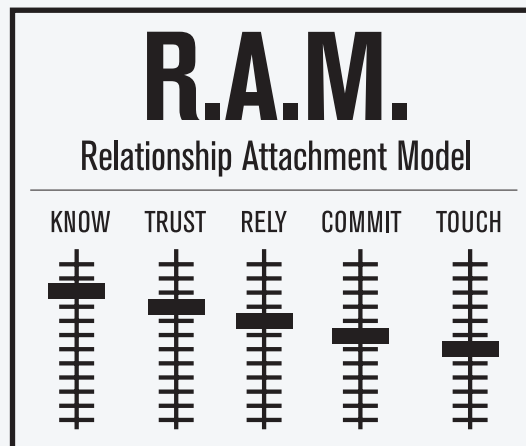

Relationship goals is unique because it provides a common understanding and language for all relationships with the RAM, the framework for the content in the sermon series, the elementary and youth classes, and the two small-group tracks for singles and marrieds.

Reach your congregation AND community

This series can be used in just about any existing structure of the church-Sunday services and classes, home groups, youth groups and retreats. It also is the perfect outreach to your community! We will help you prepare for this series, involve your congregation, and reach your community.

Can we only do the small group tracks?

Absolutely. Relationship Goals can be done by offering just the married and/or the singles tracks.
